Whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what they have done has been done in the sight of God. - John 3:21

Our Two Governments

“May you live in interesting times” is an American expression falsely attributed to the Chinese. The expression and the duality of attribution is most appropriate for today. Many are waking up to the idea that not everything is as we had believed. Once we believed the US had two main political parties. Now we understand there is only one “UniParty.” Nothing has changed but now we are awake. Once we thought all of our governors, mayors, city councils and political appointees worked for those who elected them. We are now realizing that many of them hold allegiances to other nations.

As with many of you I watched the “Inauguration” with great anticipation. We were told through backchannels that the over-the-top military build-up was for massive arrests. Many felt betrayed when this did not occur. Now, three days later there are two pictures emerging and I have not yet placed my bets on either one. First, I have little question that Trump/Military Intelligence (MI) passed along the explanation that the bad guys had blackmailed them with the threat of a major civilian catastrophe if they proceeded with the arrests. Discussion included possibilities of a missing Israeli dirty bomb briefcase, or, the bomb blast in Spain as a warning of what [they] are willing to do. But...this may be another smokescreen. The second picture that is emerging is that the Trump/MI team sprung another Rope-A-Dope on the Deep State (DS). This argument is in the process of developing (or being revealed) and it makes sense of some other observations along the way regarding the legal status of an occupied foreign nation. TBD.

So, now the United States appears to have two governments; an illegitimate civil government and a constitutional military government. If you recently joined the conversation, this is where you roll your eyes. As always, research for yourself and think for yourself. Do we know that the incoming President Elect is authorized military transport to the inauguration? Do we know that the new POTUS is authorized full military honors, including anthems, musical ruffles & flourishes, and gun salutes? Do we know that the POTUS is authorized extended US Secret Service details? Do we know that the POTUS is authorized Air Force One and Marine One aircraft? Do we know that POTUS/ Commander in Chief is authorized access to military installations? Do we really? Take a few minutes to review the images and videos of Inauguration

Day and find where Joseph R. Biden received any military honors or support due the office of President of the United States: www.duckduckgo.com.

Biden was refused military transport to the ceremony and had to take a private plane: <https://www.t TMZ.com/2021/01/19/joe-biden-isnt-getting-government-plane-to-fly-him-to-d-c-inauguration/>

Biden's envoys to the Pentagon were denied classified information: <https://www.politico.com/news/2021/01/20/biden-pentagon-transition-460768>

Kamala Harris is not occupying the Vice President's residence on military property. https://www.washingtonpost.com/lifestyle/home/kamala-harris-staying-at-blair-house/2021/01/22/81769922-5ccb-11eb-8bcf-3877871c819d_story.html

Now, take a close look at the security detail during the vehicle processions. Biden appears to have his small USSS team but there are many security in his entourage without the USSS lapel pin of the day. The USSS wear a color coded lapel pin that is changed regularly in order to immediately spot infiltrators. It appears Biden has his small authorized USSS team but there are many security personnel in the entourage that appear to be private contractors.

Let's talk about the inauguration ceremony itself. There is evidence that the ceremony was videotaped a day to a week prior to the transition date and time, and then fraudulently passed off to the viewers in concert with the mainstream media. Big deal? Dunno...According to the 20th Amendment, Section 1, the terms of the President and Vice President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January.

CNN reports that 80% of Republican voters believe the election was rigged:

200,000 Pennsylvania ballots were modified after the election:

Bottom line: Whatever Military Intelligence/NSA has on the Biden election results, it was enough to convince the senior levels of our military that a coup has taken place on the Office of the President. It is our military that is our last line of defense against all enemies; foreign and domestic.

So... we are witnessing a stand-off. The civilian UniParty rigged the election for Biden and welcomed him to the White House. The senior military and intelligence agencies know the election was rigged and refuse to recognize Biden as POTUS/Commander in Chief. There is much happening behind the scenes. Biden and Congress play 'Extend & Pretend' while military leadership plans for their removal.

The question is often asked "Why not just arrest them all?" The answer is public optics. How do the rightful owners of the 'People's House' take it back without half our cities burning to the ground? Both sides know how the game is played and both sides know the risks.

"You shall appoint judges and officers in all your towns that the Lord your God is giving you, according to your tribes, and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. You shall not pervert justice. You shall not show partiality, and you shall not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and subverts the cause of the righteous. Justice, and only justice, you shall follow, that you may live and inherit the land that the Lord your God is giving you." – Deuteronomy 16:18-20
